PYTHIAN MEMORIAL

Held at the Church of the Good Shepherd

IN MEMORY OF THE DEAD

Sermon by the Rev. Charles E. Freeman on "Such as Be Faithful in Love Shall Abide With You."

Pythian memorial service for Virginia Lodge, No. 10, Knights of Pythias, of this city was held last evening at the Church of the Good Shepherd, the members of the lodge attending the service in a body. A very appropriate and inspiring sermon was delivered by the Rev. C. E. Freeman. Taking for his text those words, "Such as be faithful in love shall abide with you," Mr. Freeman said in substance:

Knights of Pythias you have come here to a memorial service of your dead. You have come here to commemorate the memory of those who have gone from your ranks. And I find it difficult to believe that this service means more to you than the mere fact that you once knew them and they were your brothers but that you believe they still live and still remain your brothers; that you have the love that triumphs over death. I believe that your faith is something more than that of those whom your order was named, Pythias and Damon, who were disciples of Pythagoras. They believed that it was for those who had been superbly good to enter the purer and higher regions of the universe; that souls lived after death. We who live in this Christian land have a clearer idea of what immortality is because it has been revealed to us by Jesus Christ, the only begotten son. And so we commemorate our dead.

The ancients celebrated their dead with song and rejoicing because they believed that their death was their birthday into the higher life. We commemorate our dead because we know that somewhere they still live and are living a conscious existence. We commemorate our dead because we have the love that is stronger than death. Your fraternal order is founded on that great principle of love and God is love. Love is an attribute of God; it is the very essence of God. When we think of the greatness of God we think of love. Love is eternal because God is eternal. Your fraternity founded on that principle, it becomes your duty to help those who are in danger. There is not one of you who would not gladly put yourself in danger to assist a brother. It becomes your duty to assist those who are in sickness and poverty.

And as you would thus give sustenance to the poor and needy it is necessary for you to give cheer to those who are in trouble and sorrow. How blessed it is to know that there are brothers about where we can get comfort, cheer and succor when in need. But back of all these things there must be the love itself. What is love? Love is something in ourselves irrespective of what others have done for us. What is love? I point to God who is love and his son who was the living example of that love. His was a self-forgetting love. He loved whether others loved him or not. His life, his life is love and when you have that love you have immortality. Be then faithful in love and you shall abide with God. He who dwelleth in love dwelleth in God and God in him.

Attention, Union Men and Their Wives!

The workmen of Barre and vicinity are all unionized and the most of us have a certain pride in being able to show a clear card in our different Unions. Our employers and merchants are also members of their different associations—in fact, we are what would be practically called a Union town. But still there is something lacking, for we cannot deny the fact that while the most of the goods for sale in our city are products of unionized or convict labor and do not bear the Union Label. This fact is surely not creditable to any of us, and we certainly are not doing our duty to have such a state of affairs in a Union town. Do not seek it in your purchases.

JOE OSSOLA'S GOAT A WINNER

Decked In Giddy Yellow Acted as Mascot

FOR THE M. & W. BALL TEAM

Which Triumphed Over the Wholesalers' Team by a Score of 15 to 8, at Intercity Park Saturday Afternoon.

If they had been counting errors, the wholesalers would have iron hands down, but since runs counted, the freight shifters came out an easy victor over the dealers in rock-faced markers, by the score of 15 to 8 at Intercity park, Saturday afternoon. The game took added interest because the proceeds went for the benefit of the Barre-Montpelier baseball team in the Northern league. As the result of considerable scuffling around, something like 250 tickets for a quarter each were disposed of. About 150 people saw the game; the others thought it would be robbery to see so much for so little money.

The participants weren't like real ball players, for they didn't stop when the shies went gallant, but stuck manfully to their task for nine full innings. A large part of the credit for the railroad victory must go to Joe Ossola's goat, which went down as mascot for the railroad men, wearing a natty uniform of yellow, with the letters "M. & W." on it. While the goat was not chewing up the giddy covering she was eating peanuts, pop corn and chocolates, as there were no fans and clean sheets around. The animal may have given the railroad men the buttniks idea, for they luffed into the game at the start and were never headed.

Prior to the game there were various charges that "ringers" were being rung in, it being alleged that a few of the wholesalers wouldn't have known a bottom base from a manure pile and men on the other side wouldn't have dodged a train if it was coming straight at them. But finally the differences were patched up and the game began.

There were some who had seen a base ball before. One of these was "Bill" Hepburn, who recently deserted the ranks of the wholesalers for the enemy. In five times facing Pitcher Mariani, "He" got five hits for six bases, giving him a fair batting average. He let one grounder go through his shins but accepted eight other chances without a quiver. The "professional" Nute, played several positions, although he was down on the score card as first baseman. Oscar Hanson dropped two flies beautifully, but suggested the third base was all was played by the water boy, Harry Ream, who refused to be mascot for the wholesalers, seeing what the railroad men brought along for mascot. If any of the spectators should note any omissions in the error columns as printed they will lay it to the desire of the scorer to be as lenient as possible. The score:

ON INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Demand Made, With a Warning, in Behalf of San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 18.—Demand has been made in the name of the city of San Francisco and the state of California on all insurance companies that are accused of endeavoring to dodge their obligations for full settlement with the people of San Francisco who lost property by fire in April. A telegram signed by Mayor Schmitz and Gov. Pardee has been sent to the home offices of the 61 companies that voted in Oakland to cut all payments of losses 25 per cent. The wording of the telegram is secret, but it is known that the message is a warning to the concerns addressed that they must deal fairly and honestly with the San Francisco public or be driven from California. Before the message was sent it was submitted to Insurance Commissioner Wolf, who gave it his approval. A number of companies that hold large amounts of reinsurance in other concerns would sign stipulations extending the time for filing proof of loss were they not prohibited from doing so by the reinsurance companies.

TURNING OF THE TIDE

VERMONT ON THE EDGE OF POLITICAL REVOLUTION.

Machine Press Misleading Voters—Lifelong Republican Denounces Machine-Proctor Newspaper Demands Reform—Voters Aroused.

After the recent Republican caucuses, in which there was no opposition whatever to the machine candidate, the result was advertised in certain newspapers as a GLORIOUS VICTORY FOR PROCTOR.

The organs of the ring are belittling the independent movement in the same degree and have published columns of misrepresentation in the effort to show that Proctor will have it all his own way at the polls.

This is false and misleading in every respect. VERMONT IS FILLED WITH A GREAT UNREST. There is a powerful undercurrent of revolt against the continuation of ring rule. "Forty years of Proctor" promises forty years more of the same influence and domination at the polls.

THE INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT.

This feeling is well voiced in a letter written by a lifelong Republican and published in the Rutland Herald June 15th:

"I have been a lifelong Republican, feebly protesting against machine rule in politics. I have been highly honored without the seeking by the Republican party after the manner of politicians. I have been in positions to know something of machine politics, and I am satisfied that VERMONT HAS BECOME AS CORRUPT AS ANY STATE IN THE NATION IN HER MACHINE RULE.

"The Republican party today in Vermont HAS NO PLATFORM OR PRINCIPLE WHICH IT WOULD NOT TRADE OR ABANDON FOR THE 'SPOILS OF OFFICE'."

"On the temperance question it halted and straddled and fattened, approved the old prohibition law, but was again its enforcement, and not until leave pioneers blazed the way did it at last some LIMPING AND CRAWLING INTO THE LOCAL OPTION RANKS.

"As indicative of the unblushing arrogance of the party leaders and to show what straits the party was in, a caucus law was passed, asking freemen to swear in advance allegiance to the Republican machine."

"PERCIVAL W. CLEMENT REPRESENTS JUST AS GOOD REPUBLICANISM AS THE G. O. P. and we believe his love for a greater Vermont is just as sincere as that manifested by that party in the years gone by or today, and we believe that this 'New Vermont' will come just as speedily with him for governor as under any political syndicate, however strong and pretensions."

"If the independent Republicans and the Democrats who for many years have fought for principles, some of which the Republicans have stolen and are bragging about, should unite, A FREE CITIZEN OF VERMONT MAY VOTE THAT TICKET WITH HONOR, with patriotism and with wisdom, for it would be a party with a platform and the courage of its convictions, and for a time at least it would not have so many barnacles eating into the ship of state."

PROCTOR PRESS ALARMED.

The St. Albans Messenger, which is a supporter of Fletcher D. Proctor, served notice on the Republican party June 18th in the following unmistakable terms:

"Each succeeding day of silence about the planks that should be incorporated in the platform confirms and strengthens the idea of some men that MR. CLEMENT'S INDEPENDENT PARTY IS THE ONLY ONE THAT IS MAKING ANY DEFINITE PROPOSITION FOR THE PUBLIC BENEFIT. The way to encourage better, better and independent is to stubbornly ignore the very cause and things that create them."

"It may be all well enough to affect a fine scorn of Mr. Clement's movement and it deserves to be defeated. The Messenger quite agrees with that. But it will be a DEARLY BOUGHT VICTORY for the Republican organization if Mr. Clement is defeated simply by the mere dead weight of a mass of men that for the most part are VOTING STRAIGHT FROM FORCE OF HABIT."

"THE PEOPLE ARE GETTING RESTLESS AND DISCONTENTED with some phases of existing conditions here in Vermont, just as they are throughout the country generally. That restlessness is bound to express itself in activity somewhere, sometime, before long."

"IT IS DETERMINED TO HAVE A BETTER GOVERNMENT and it is FEELING AROUND FOR LEADERS that will help to bring it about."

"It will no longer consent to be HERD UNDER THE BANNER OF SO-CALLED REPUBLICANISM and marched out to fight somebody's private quarrel for him or gain for some man the gratification of a personal ambition."

"It demands improved laws and governmental institutions and it is GOING WITH THE MEN AND THE PARTY THAT OFFER THE MOST LIKELY HOOD OF OBTAINING THEM."

PERTINENT QUERIES.

By the way, will some newspaper of public advocate tell WHY the independent movement "deserves to be defeated"? So far NOT ONE REASON HAS BEEN GIVEN WHY it should be defeated and the machine retained in power.

Voters of Vermont, will you trust the machine and candidate that promise nothing or the man and the party that stand for genuine reform?

SULLIVAN FOR GOVERNOR

Socialists Nominate Graniteville Man

AT THEIR CONVENTION

William Evans of Barre for Secretary of State and Alex. Ironside of this City for Auditor—Sixty-five Delegates Present.

Bellows Falls, June 18.—The Socialist convention for the state of Vermont was held at Bellows Falls Saturday afternoon, and the following were placed in nomination for the state ticket to be voted for September 4:

For governor, Timothy Sullivan of Graniteville; for lieutenant governor, Chester E. Ordway of Proctorsville; for secretary of state, William Evans of Barre; for treasurer, Celon D. Farnum of South Londonderry; for auditor, Alexander Ironside of Barre; for attorney general, J. Walter Shelley of Putney; candidate for second congressional district, J. H. Dunbar of North Hartland.

There were about 65 delegates present. The platform demands the nationalization of the railroads, the telegraph, telephone and express companies, and steamship lines, the election of United States senators by popular vote, the election of United States judges by the people of respective districts for terms not to exceed six years, that no law be placed on the statute books without being subject to the initiative and referendum, that all elective officers shall be subject to the imperative mandate and the right of recall, that fire and accident insurance be established by the state, that labor union funds be protected by law so that they will not be liable for loss sustained to employers in case of strikes. Equal suffrage for both sexes is demanded, an eight-hour workday for all corporations and upon public works, a weekly payment law, the abolition of capital punishment, and the present caucus law enacted by the last session of the legislature is denounced as calculated to perpetuate machine rule.

Four of the eight delegates are strong Clement men.

RICH IN ALUMINUM.

Pittsburg Expert Speaks Highly of Deposit at Arlington.

Bennington, June 18.—The announcement that an extensive deposit of aluminum has been discovered on Spruce Peak, a small mountain in the town of Arlington, about 22 miles north of here, is exciting a good deal of interest. The deposit is on land owned by O. P. Walker, and covers about 2 1/2 miles. A Pittsburg expert says the richest part is in a ledge, which rises sheer along the face of the mountain for 800 feet. Test pits were made, and it is said that the ore taken out yielded from 54 to 87 per cent. The expert says the slate schist is the best that he has ever seen and easy to mine.

Hurricane Off Newfoundland.

Halifax, N. S., June 18.—A furious hurricane raged along the Newfoundland coast during the 48 hours up to last night, causing serious damage to shipping. Two vessels with 14 men on board have been blown out to sea. Tugs have been sent in quest of them. Several vessels have been driven ashore. An enormous amount of fishing gear has been destroyed. It is feared the gale has wrought havoc among the trawling fleet off the Grand banks. News from the fleet is apprehensively awaited.

BASE BALL STIFFNESS

DITCHED NEAR SCHUYLERVILLE.

Boston & Maine Train Derailed by a Washout.

North Adams, Mass., June 18.—A fast mail train on the Boston & Maine railroad was derailed and thrown into the ditch Saturday in a bad washout near Schuylerville, N. Y., caused by the terrific storm which raged all night. No lives were lost.

Relief trains which were sent to the assistance of the train wrecked near Schuylerville were stalled several miles from the scene of the wreck. There are several washouts on the line, and railroad men estimated that fully 36 hours would be required to restore the tracks to a condition which would permit the relief trains to proceed to their destination.

The passenger train, which was due to reach Saratoga at 6:40 a. m. Saturday, was derailed in a washout. Martin Welch, the fireman, jumped when the engine left the rails, and was badly injured. The train had been running tracks submerged to a depth of six inches of water, which had gathered during Friday night's heavy precipitation, and the engineer was unaware that the track had been undermined until his engine plunged from the rails. The relief trains started for the scene of the wreck soon after the accident, and the crews are now assisting in repairing the damaged tracks.

POURED KEROSENE INTO STOVE.

Readsboro Italian Dies at North Adams Hospital from Burns.

Readsboro, Vt., June 18.—Delise Dominio, 18, a native of Italy, was driven over 30 miles while practically in a dying condition from terrible burns received at his home in Readsboro, Friday night, and arrived at the North Adams hospital shortly after 11 o'clock that night, but died at 5 Saturday morning. He had been an employee of the Metal Edge-box company for some little time. He was engaged in lighting a fire in the range at his home by pouring kerosene on the embers in the stove and an explosion occurred, and the flames from the stove enveloped him and he was terribly burned before they could be extinguished.

Realizing that his injuries were dangerous and that the last train on the narrow gauge road had already left Readsboro, it was decided to remove him to North Adams by team for treatment and the trip was made in a little over three hours over heavy mountain roads. It was apparent that nothing could be done for him when he was received at the institution, except to make him as comfortable as possible. He had formerly worked in North Adams, but, so far as can be learned, has no relatives there.

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR MEN GAIN.

The Insurance of America and the Niagara Join Them.

San Francisco, June 18.—The 32 insurance companies that rejected the suggestion of a 75-cent compromise in San Francisco, put forward by 61 of their associates in the underwriters' bureau, have received two additional to their number. The Insurance company of North America, and the Niagara of New York, have announced that they will pay up dollar for dollar on their losses.

The San Francisco Examiner says: "The latest addition to the list of insurance companies that have decided to withdraw from business on the coast is the Delaware of Philadelphia. The Delaware is an old established concern, organized in Philadelphia in 1835, and has done business in California for a number of years. It announces that while it is the company's intention to adjust all losses, it will not pay more than 75 cents on the dollar in any instance."

Brattleboro, June 18.—The village halliffs issued Saturday night a call for a special village meeting June 29 to decide the amount and denominations of the bonds which the village will issue under the vote of Jan. 10 in payment for an independent water system. The voters are also asked to decide as to the rate of interest and as to whether they will authorize and ratify the negotiations and sale of the bonds by the water board.
